BENTLEIGH, VIC. 3204

Dear Ainslee,

Whilst it is somewhat after the event, nonetheless, allow me to congratulate you once again on your win in the Electrical & Communication Industry Awards of Excellent 2002.

The School understands the complexity of the power reticulation project that you undertook for us over the end of year break 2001/2002 and the potential that existed for this project to go astray. The fact that it did not is a great credit to you and your planning of the works. We find this not at all surprising given the high standard of work that you have always provided here at Melbourne Grammar School. To be recognised by an Award given by the Electrical Industry for your excellence and service is well deserved and certainly a "commercial feather in your cap". For our operational integrity to have been maintained as it was through what we expected to be turbulent times, is a clear reflection of your qualifications for the award.

Well done!

Yours sincerely,
